

Model course

01 Fuchu Station

5 min.

02 Fuchu-no-Mori Park

People often visit this large park that has a large lawn area, Japanese garden, and water park where children can play. Take a bus from Fuchu station to go there.

03 Fuchu Art Museum

10 min.

An art museum comes in sight at the end of the cherry-blossom avenue that runs through the park. "Paretan and Murata", the mascot characters of this museum, will welcome you. The well-thought-out special exhibition with valuable collections is being held on the second floor. Free art gallery and museum shop are open on the first floor, perfect for a rest from your stroll.

04 Mt. Sengen Park

2 min.

Mt. Sengen is 80 meters high, which is just right for a short hike. Although it is a small mountain, you can see the whole of Fuchu City and sometimes even Mt. Fuji.

05 Genoise [Sengencho store]

Among the four stores of this cake shop in Fuchu City, this is the main store located close to Mt. Sengen. Does eating cakes in the park sound good? Of course, you can eat in its in-store cafe, too.

Tama Cemetery

Beside Mt. Sengen, there is a cemetery which was established as Japan's first park-style cemetery. Graves of renowned people such as Yamamoto Isoroku, an important military commander, and famous artist Okamoto Taro are in this cemetery. It is an interesting experience to see Japanese-style graves in a large park.

B Fuchu Culture and Nature Course

01 Fuchuhommachi Station

15 min.

Fuchu Station

5 min.

03 Tokyo Wholesale Market

10 min.

The best way to know the culture of a country is visiting markets. This is a fish market that has about 70 stores, offering a variety of items from food products such as fish, meat and vegetables to daily commodities. Some stores close earlier, so going there in the morning is recommended. (5 min. by taxi from Fuchu Station, 15 min. on foot from Fuchuhommachi Station.)

04 Fuchu City Kyodo-no-Mori Museum

The museum complex located in one large park offers historic buildings, replicas of Fuchu's traditional old houses and its city office, a permanent exhibition where you can learn about the history of Fuchu through panels and models, and a planetarium. Spending a day in this park will not make you bored. In early spring, plum blossoms can be seen.

05 Kyodo-no-Mori tourism product promotion center

Nearby the museum, Fuchu souvenirs and meals are offered. Why don't you have lunch made out of local ingredients in the restaurant?

06 Shimogawara Path

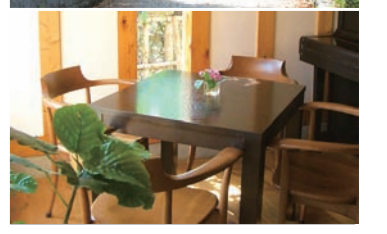

25 min.

It is both a cycling road and a promenade that stretches straight from Fuchu City Kyodo-no-Mori Museum to the north. It is on the trail of railway tracks that are not used nowadays. Let's walk and see the rich nature along the road.

07 Mori no cafe

Have a relaxing time at Mori no cafe after your walk on the green way. As its name "Mori" says (Mori means forest in Japanese), the cafe looks like a guest house in the forest.

Map Symbols

Information board	Tourist Information
Convenience Store	History
Public Toilet	Culture
Police Box	Hotel
Post Office	Museum
Library	Sento (Public bath)
Currency Exchange	Shopping
Park	Cafe
Shrine	Restaurant
Temple	Activities

Model Course

- Intersection
- Bus Stop
- Station
- Expressway
- Green way (Promenade)

Information on free Wi-Fi in Fuchu

In Fuchu City, you can use free Wi-Fi in more than 50 places. First, download the app "Japan Connected-free Wi-Fi" on Android or iOS device. Once you have registered for it, you can get a free internet connection at participating stores.

With this app, you can use free Wi-Fi not only in Fuchu City but also all over Japan at more than 140,000 Wi-Fi spots. (as of the end of November 2015)

*Download and registration of this app are recommended with an internet connection.

You can use it in 11 languages, including English, Simplified Chinese, Traditional Chinese, Korean, Thai, Malay, Indonesian, French, Spanish, German and Japanese.

Find the nearest Wi-Fi spot on the map of the app, and touch the connect button to get a free internet connection.

You can search available Wi-Fi spots from the link below.

<http://wifi-spot.geospace.jp/lang/map/en>

Fuchu-no-Mori and Mt. Sengen Course

Musashino lily
A yellow lily that grows only in the Sengen Hill Park. Blooms in April and May.

Short visit if you have time

06

Drop by when you have time

02

Recommendation

012 JRA Tokyo Racecourse JRA東京競馬場 B3
Dramatic horse racing track
 An exemplary horse racing track that holds many stakes races such as the Japan Derby. Horse races in front of your eyes are very impressive. Buy a betting ticket if you go there. The statue of a golden horse on the way to the JRA Tokyo Racecourse is a great photo spot.

013 JRA Racing Museum JRA競馬博物館 C2
A rare museum specialized in horse racing
 This is a free museum specialized in horse racing. There is a corner on the history of horse racing, and a hands-on experience corner with a robot horse on which you can ride and a real starting gate.

014 Fuchu Prison 府中刑務所 A1
Get "Made in prison" goods
 The biggest prison in Japan was built about 80 years ago. The exhibition corner next to the prison sells daily goods and high quality crafts made by prisoners from all over Japan. They are affordable and make for nice souvenirs.

015 Togoji Temple 東郷寺 D3
The model temple for a film by Akira Kurosawa
 A temple built at the villa of Togo Heihachiro, an important admiral in the Russo-Japanese war. It also served as a model for the classic film "Rashomon" by famous Japanese film director Akira Kurosawa. In spring, the weeping cherry blossoms in front of the temple gate make for a breathtaking scenery.

016 Tama Riverbank Green 多摩川緑地 C3
Tama river with a rich river system
 The Tama riverbed keeps its diverse natural appearances. There are well-equipped facilities such as cycling roads and BBQ corners. Have a relaxing time at Tama riverside.

017 Hotel Continental ホテルコンチネンタル B2
Cocktails associated with horse racing
 As Fuchu City is renowned for horse racing, Hotel Continental offers original horse racing cocktails in its bar, "COLT". Also don't miss the limited-time offer of cocktails in connection with popular horse races.

018 Ishikawa (soba) A2 いし川
 Soba shop loved by local people

019 Kisaburo (sanuki Udon) A2 喜三郎
 Traditional restaurant with chewy Sanuki Udon

020 Uomoto (Japanese food/eel) B2 魚元
 Eel and Tempura restaurant, launched in 1943

021 Taisei (conveyor belt sushi) B1 たいせい府中店
 Reasonable sushi shop in FORIS

022 Mimatsu (sushi) B1 三松本店
 Sushi shop near Fuchu Station

023 Torigen (Japanese food) B1 鳥元
 A good Yakitori restaurant nearby the station

024 Cafe Bodaiju B2 菩提樹
 The bamboo view from the window is impressive

025 Kogumaya coffee shop A2 こぐま屋珈琲店
 Small café near Okunitama-jinja Shrine

026 Monamour Seifudo B1 モナムール清風堂
 Specialized in Italian cuisine and French cakes

Bakery

027 Petit Ange SHOSEIDO B1 ブチ・アンジュ昭盛堂
 Bakery in the shopping street (since 1962)

028 BOULANGERIE Le Petit Monde A2 プーランジュリエール ブチモンド
 Bakery popular with local people

Shopping

029 Don Quijote (discount store) C2 ドン・キホーテ
 The first store, popular with foreign visitors

030 MINANO (shopping center) A2 MINANO
 Convenient shopping mall with 20 shops

031 Home center Shimachū A2 ホームセンター 島忠
 DIY facility complex

032 K's denki A2 ケーズデンキ
 Every sort of appliance is available here

034 National Historical Remnants of Musashi Kokufu 国史跡 武蔵国府跡 B2
Find the roots of Fuchu city
 "Musashinokuni" was the large province located near Tokyo a thousand years ago. Its central government "Kokufu" was located in Musashi Kokufu, where now red pillars are replicated at the ruin site.

035 Okunitama-jinja shrine repository 大國魂神社宝物殿 A2
The history of Okunitama-jinja Shrine
 It is a small museum exhibiting ritual goods for the Kurayami festival, such as eight portable shrines and big drums, historical documents, and treasures.

036 Kamiyoshimura 紙よし村 A1
Washi specialty store
 Washi is Japanese traditional paper which is light and strong. Kamiyoshimura is a store specializing in Washi since the 19th century. It offers high-quality Washi from all over Japan. Chiyogami is recommended for souvenirs as it has a wide range of colors.

037 ROUND1 ラウンドワン A2
If you want to enjoy yourself in Fuchu, this is the place.
 The "Round 1" near the Fuchu Honmachi Station offers amusement facilities, such as for bowling, darts, and billiards. You can play over night as it is open until morning (open 24 hours on weekends).

038 KURURU くるる A2
The compact and functional shopping center
 KURURU is a shopping center which gathers stores specializing in youth fashion and merchandise. The restaurant floor includes a ramen shop and a sushi restaurant, cafes, Toys"R"Us and a cinema complex. You can do almost all kinds of shopping here.

039 Isetan 伊勢丹 A2
One of the biggest high-end department stores in Japan
 Isetan is one of the esteemed department stores in Japan, and it offers high-end tenants specializing in cosmetics and men's and women's fashion.

040 TOHO CINEMAS Fuchu TOHOシネマス A2
Cinema complex equipped with 9 screens
 It offers the latest and most popular lineups on premium screens in luxurious rooms or on huge screens wider than 14 meters. Of course, all screens are equipped with overwhelming 5.1ch digital surround sound.

041 Fuchu tourist information center 府中市観光情報センター (観光案内所) A2
Center of Fuchu tourism
 The Fuchu tourist information center provides you with Fuchu city guidebooks, event information and maps.

042 FORIS フォーリス A2
Specialty mall next to Isetan
 FORIS is a specialty mall with a variety of casual-style clothing shops and food stores in one building. It also holds shows and concerts in the bright open atrium. Let's hang out to see those interesting events!

043 Nakakyuhonten (sake shop) 中久本店 (酒店) A1
Get Japanese sake as a souvenir
 This store offers a wide range of sake brands from all over Japan. "Kou-zuru" which is made in Fuchu has a nice flavor, and you can drink it hot or chilled.

044 Kura Cafe 蔵カフェ A1
Kura, a café made out of a Japanese warehouse
 Right beside Nakakyuhonten is a café which is a refurbished Kura (Japanese warehouse) from the Edo period (17th to 19th century). Enjoy the taste of coffee and sake lees latte made out of by-products of sake in the café decorated with retro ornaments.

045 Suzukiya 鈴木屋 A2
An indispensable shop for festivals
 It is a specialty store for festivals in Fuchu City such as Kurayami (darkness) festival. Festival items that you can get only in Japan, such as Hanten (short coat), Tenugui (towel face-cloth), and Tabi (rubber-soled socks) are all offered in this store.

046 Zelkova Trees けやき並木 A2
Symbol of Fuchu City
 This is an avenue with 150 zelkova trees that stretches straight from Okunitama Shrine for 500 meters. The people of Fuchu love the green tunnel-like appearance which is designated as a natural monument. On the street, there is a bronze statue of Minamoto Yoshiie, who was a samurai (Japanese warrior) 900 years ago.

047 Musashino Sabo 武蔵野茶房 B1
Delicious Japanese sweets for you
 This Japanese style café is on the first floor of Fuchu Station. Let's sweeten up with desserts made with Matcha, Shiratama (rice dumplings) and sweet red beans.

048 Mensoken kanade/Kurenai 麵創研かんで / 紅 A1
Two characteristic Ramen shops
 The two ramen shops are located next to each other. One is "Kanade", offering ramen with noodles, soup, and ingredients in a good balance. The other is "Kurenai", offering voluminous ramen using thick noodles and red spicy soup. Let's try both and compare the differences.

049 Dadaratei 駄々羅亭 B1
Enjoy the retro atmosphere
 This is an Izakaya (Japanese-style pub) replicating the Showa era (1926-1989), a period of rapid growth. It reminds Japanese people of old days in Japan, and for foreign visitors it's the place where you can experience the old style of Japan.

Fuchu souvenirs

Rokusha dumplings (Aokiya)
 It is a simple bun made with roughly-crushed sweet beans covered with a soy sauced sheet, with a stamp of the six shrines of Okunitama Shrine.
050 青木屋 map B2

Musashino Nisshi (Aokiya)
 Musashino Nisshi is a mini baumkuchen with the image of wood in Fuchu City in mind. It is different from other baumkuchen as the middle of it is filled with chocolate and white chocolate.
050 青木屋 map B2

Kuribayashi Gyoza
 Gyoza are pan-fried dumplings made with meat covered by a thick flour sheet. Kuribayashi Gyoza are 50% larger than normal gyoza, and they contain a lot of vegetables.
051 くりばやし餃子 map A1

Fuchu roman ▼
 Fuchu roman is shochu (Japanese vodka) made from Kuromai (Fuchu black rice). The name of this mellow flavor shochu, "roman", means romantic.
026 モナムール清風堂 map B1

Musashi Kokufu roll cake (Monamour Seifudo)
 It is a red roll cake sprinkled with strawberry powder, which represents the pillar of Musashino Kokufu's trail. The flavor of sour freeze-dried strawberry and purple potato cream is very nice.
026 モナムール清風堂 map B1

Festivals of Fuchu City

- Feb. Bean-Throwing Festival
- May Kurayami Festival (Darkness Festival)
- Jul. Plum festival
- Aug. Yosakoi in Fuchu
- Nov. Torinoichi open-air market

Kurayami Festival (Darkness Festival)
 It is the biggest festival in Fuchu City, which originated in turning off all the lights at midnight. An overwhelming performance can be seen at Okunitama-jinja Shrine on May 4th, with six big drums including the 2.5-ton drum called Osakibaraigaotako that is 2.5 meters in diameter. Also, 24 decorated high-wheeled festival floats do a procession on the Old Koshi highway that goes through Okunitama-jinja Shrine. On May 5th (6pm to 9pm), eight portable shrines compete moving forward, which is an overwhelming performance and a highlight of this festival. The procession starts at the road in front of Okunitama-jinja Shrine and goes through the Old Koshi highway to its final destination, Kosatsuba. Outside the festival season, you can see eight portable shrines, six big drums and decorated high-wheeled floats at the Okunitama-jinja shrine repository. You can also watch a video of this festival on a big screen in the Fuchu City Kyodo-no-Mori Museum.

Bean-Throwing Festival
 Setsubun is a Japanese traditional event where people throw beans to celebrate the coming of spring. People believe that they can ward off evil spirits or demons with the beans. The bean-throwing festival held at Okunitama Shrine is very popular as celebrities throw the beans.
02 February

Plum festival
 In this festival, there are stalls and stores that sell plums and fans with the drawing of crows which are believed to help ward off evil.
07 July 20th

Yosakoi in Fuchu
 Yosakoi Festival is very popular all over Japan because of its gorgeous clothing and overwhelming performances. 50 teams of performers, a total of 2000 people, will show a dance performance at ten event venues including the street of zelkova trees.
08 late August

Torinoichi open-air market
 It is a festival held on the day of the bird (based on Chinese Zodiac) at Owashi Shrine inside of Okunitama Shrine. Rakes are sold as items that bring happiness and economic fortune. Decorated with good-luck charms, the rakes look bright and fun.
11 November

Flowers in Fuchu

- Cherry blossoms late March to early April
- Plum blossoms from February to March
- Musashino lily from April to May
- Hydrangea June
- Oga lotus mid-July to mid-August

Sakuraya 052 Akebonoyu 053
 Sakuraya is a modern sento located on the first floor of the apartment building. It offers a large sauna bath and a soft water shower. The soft water is good for the beauty of your skin. map B2

Akebonoyu
 In Akebonoyu, there is a variety of baths such as a sauna bath (extra charge), an open-air bath, and an electric bath which has a massaging effect. map B1

Have a relaxing time in a Sento
 Sento is a public bath that you can find around town. In sento, men and women use different facilities, and each room has a large bath tub and a dressing room that 10-20 people can use at the same time. Why don't you enjoy Japanese Sento culture in Fuchu?
Rule of Sento
 Take off your shoes at the entrance. Take off your underwear before you enter the bath area. Wash your body before soaking in the bath. Don't wash your body and clothes in the bath. Don't soak your towel in the water. Dry your body before you go out to the changing room.

Jomonnoyu 054
 Located near Fuchu Station on the Zelkova street is a natural hot spring "Jomonnoyu". The natural water is brown and has many effects such as healing incised wounds, neurosis, and poor circulation. On top of the building, there is an open-air bath for men where you can see Mt. Fuji. The admission fee is 2400 yen including the use of rental towels and the napping room. *Those who have tattoos or tattoo seals on their bodies are not allowed to enter. map B1

Welcome to Fuchu City

We welcome all of you who are visiting Fuchu City. Fuchu has a long history. After the Taikanokaihsin revolution in 645, Musashi Kokufu was established. Since then, it has flourished as a center of Kanto area. Fuchu is also rich in nature with the landscapes of the Tama river and Mt. Sengen. In the central area, there are shopping centers, department stores and a theater. We hope you have a wonderful stay in Fuchu City.

About this map
 We provide you with useful and convenient information on many things, including shopping and leisure. This map was made to make your stay in Fuchu as pleasant as possible. There are many things that originated in Fuchu, such as Don Quijote, which is very popular with foreign visitors to Japan, research of blue berry cultivation and park-style cemetery. Why don't you find your favorite spot in Fuchu?

Location of Fuchu

Fuchu City is located in the eastern part of Tokyo.

It is 20 min. by express train from Shinjuku Station.

Access information to Fuchu

You can go to Fuchu by taking a bus or a train from Narita Airport and Haneda Airport.

Fuchu City Map
 Published by Fuchu City Hall and Fuchu Tourism Association Edited by L'UNION PUBLICATIONS, INC. Designed by TRITONE
 国土地理院の電子国土基本図等を加工して作成
 Published in February, 2016