Hear from the former Under Secretary of Homeland Security

Michael Brown, former Under Secretary of Homeland Security is now an Owner / Member Partner with The Blue Cell. Michael holds two Presidential Commissions. He was a member of the White House Consequence Management Committee following the attacks of 9/11.

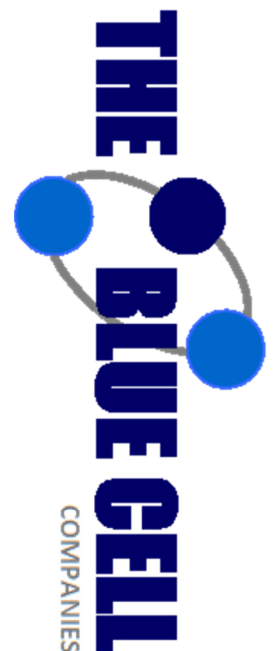

He has a unique perspective on homeland security issues since he is the only Presidential appointee to have served in a legacy agency and on the transition team to create DHS then as the Under Secretary in the newly created cabinet department.

Michael is the author of Deadly Indifference: The Perfect [Political] Storm in which he poignantly describes the role of politics in a risk-averse society facing natural or manmade disasters. He travels worldwide speaking on issues of homeland security, crisis management and, in particular, personal resilience.
